Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¡Hola!	Hello! (to one person)
¡Hola a todos!	Goodbye! (to one person)
¡Adiós a todos!	Goodbye! (to multiple people)
¡Adiós!	Hello! (to multiple people)

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase
to the matching Spanish phrase.

¡Buenos días!

Good night!

¡Buen día!

Good day!

¡Buenas tardes!

Good afternoon!

¡Buenas noches!

Good morning!

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¿Cómo estás?

My name is...

¿Cómo están?

How are you? (singular)

¡Bien, gracias!

Well, thank you!

Me llamo...

How are you? (plural)

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

Mucho gusto.

Where are you from?

¿De dónde eres?

What is your name?

¿Cómo te llamas?

Nice to meet you.

¿Cuántos años tienes?

How old are you?

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¿Qué hora es?

What time is it?

Gracias.

You're welcome (literally, "It is nothing")

De nada.

Excuse me.

Perdón.

Please.

Por favor.

Thank you.

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¡Hola!	Hello! (to one person)
¡Hola a todos!	Goodbye! (to one person)
¡Adiós a todos!	Goodbye! (to multiple people)
¡Adiós!	Hello! (to multiple people)

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¡Buenos días!

¡Buen día!

¡Buenas tardes!

¡Buenas noches!

Good night!

Good day!

Good afternoon!

Good morning!

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

Use the Village

¿Cómo estás?	My name is...
¿Cómo están?	How are you? (singular)
¡Bien, gracias!	Well, thank you!
Me llamo...	How are you? (plural)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

Mucho gusto.	Where are you from?
¿De dónde eres?	What is your name?
¿Cómo te llamas?	Nice to meet you.
¿Cuántos años tienes?	How old are you?

Use the Village

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spanish Conversation Phrases

Draw a line from the English phrase to the matching Spanish phrase.

¿Qué hora es?

Gracias.

De nada.

Perdón.

Por favor.

What time is it?

You're welcome (literally, "It is nothing")

Excuse me.

Please.

Thank you.

Use the Village

The Adventure of Pablo and the Lost Piñata

One sunny afternoon, Pablo and his little sister, María, were getting ready for a special fiesta at their abuela's house. Pablo was very excited. He put on his favorite hat and said, "¡Hola!" to himself in the mirror. María came running into the room and shouted, "¡Hola a todos!" even though it was just the two of them. They laughed and headed outside.

As they walked down the street, they saw their neighbor, Señor Gómez, who was carrying a very large piñata shaped like a donkey. "¡Adiós a todos!," he said, waving to the kids as he got into his car. But just as Señor Gómez drove away, the piñata flew out of the car's trunk and landed with a loud thud on the sidewalk! "¡Adiós!" Pablo shouted, as he and María ran after the piñata, which had started rolling down the hill. When they finally caught up with the piñata, they noticed it had a little note stuck to it. Pablo read the note out loud: "¡Buenos días! Piñata delivery service at your service. If lost, please return to Señor Gómez." "¡Buen día!," María said, "We need to take it back to Señor Gómez before the fiesta starts!" But before they could move, they saw a squirrel eyeing the piñata with great interest. "¡Buenas tardes!," said the squirrel, in what was surely the strangest greeting Pablo had ever heard from a squirrel. "¡Buenas noches!," the squirrel added as it tried to drag the piñata into a tree. "Hey! That's not yours!" María shouted, pulling the piñata back. The squirrel looked disappointed but didn't argue, and scampered off.

As they continued on their way, Pablo and María saw their friend Luis. "¿Cómo estás?," Luis asked when he saw them struggling with the piñata. "¿Cómo están?," added his sister, Ana, who had appeared behind him. She was always polite and never forgot to greet everyone. "¡Bien, gracias!," Pablo and María replied together. "But we need to get this piñata back to Señor Gómez." "Me llamo Pablo, and this is María," said Pablo, as they introduced themselves to a curious bird that had landed on the piñata.
"Mucho gusto," chirped the bird. "Can I help?" Just then, Señor Gómez arrived in a hurry. "¿De dónde eres?," he asked the bird, who was still sitting on the piñata. "Don't worry about that," Pablo said quickly. "¿Cómo te llamas?," he asked, trying to be polite. "My name is Beaky," the bird replied proudly. "And I'm here to help you protect the piñata from squirrels." "Well, we're glad you're here, Beaky," María said. "But we should really be going. We need to return the piñata."

As they walked away, Pablo turned to Señor Gómez and asked, "¿Cuántos años tienes?" Señor Gómez laughed and replied, "Too many to count, but not too old to enjoy a good fiesta! Now, shall we?" Finally, they made it to Abuela's house just in time for the party. "¿Qué hora es?," María asked, worried they might be late. "Right on time!" said Abuela, as she welcomed them inside. "Gracias for bringing the piñata back," Señor Gómez said to Pablo and María. "De nada," they replied. As the party began, Beaky the bird flew around, making sure no squirrels got near the piñata. Everyone had a great time, and before they left, Pablo and María said, "Perdón for any trouble, Señor Gómez." "No trouble at all, kids," he replied with a smile. "Por favor," help yourselves to some candy!" And so, with full bellies and happy hearts, they all went home, ready for another day of adventures.

The End

Use the Vhlaoe