Writing Prompt Ideas:

1. Snowman's Adventure Prompt: Write a short story about the exciting adventures your snowman friend has on a snowy day. Where does he go, and who does he meet along the way?

1. Snowman's Wish Prompt: If the snowman could make a wish, what do you think he would wish for? Write a persuasive paragraph explaining the snowman's wish and why it's important.

1. Snowman's Secret Talent Prompt: Imagine the snowman has a secret talent that no one knows about. What is it, and how does he use it to bring joy to others in the winter season?

1. Snowman's Journal Prompt: Pretend to be the snowman and write a journal entry about your day. Describe the weather, the people you met, and your feelings as you stand in front of the tree.

1. Snowman's Winter Friends Prompt: Create a list of winter friends that the snowman might have, such as animals, other snowmen, or even magical creatures. Describe each friend and their role in the snowman's world.

1. Poetry Prompt: Use your creativity to compose a poem about the snowman and the winter scene. Capture the beauty, magic, and emotions of the moment in verse. Consider the snowman's perspective, the wintry landscape, and the feelings that come with the season. Remember to use descriptive language and let your imagination shine through your words.
