

The President

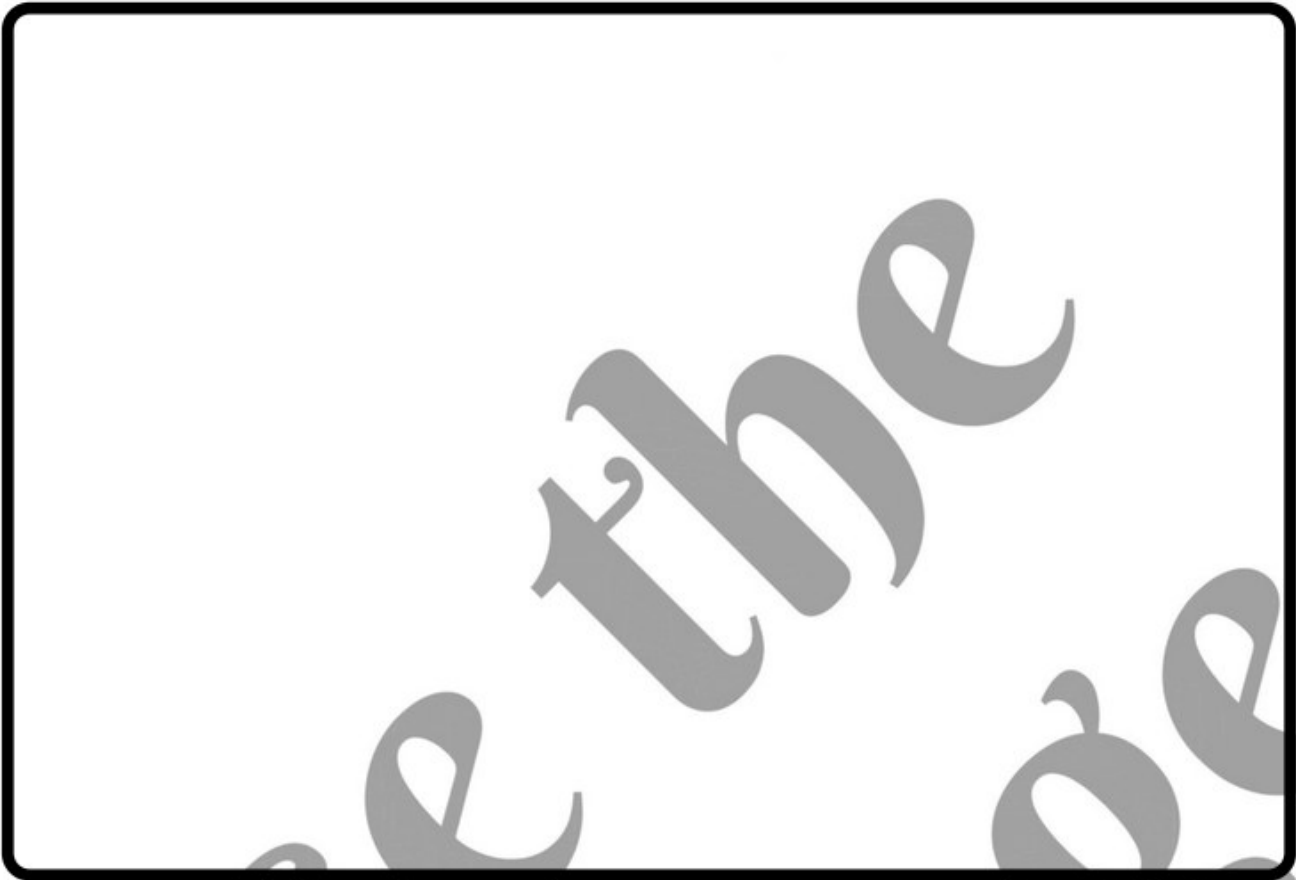

Me As President

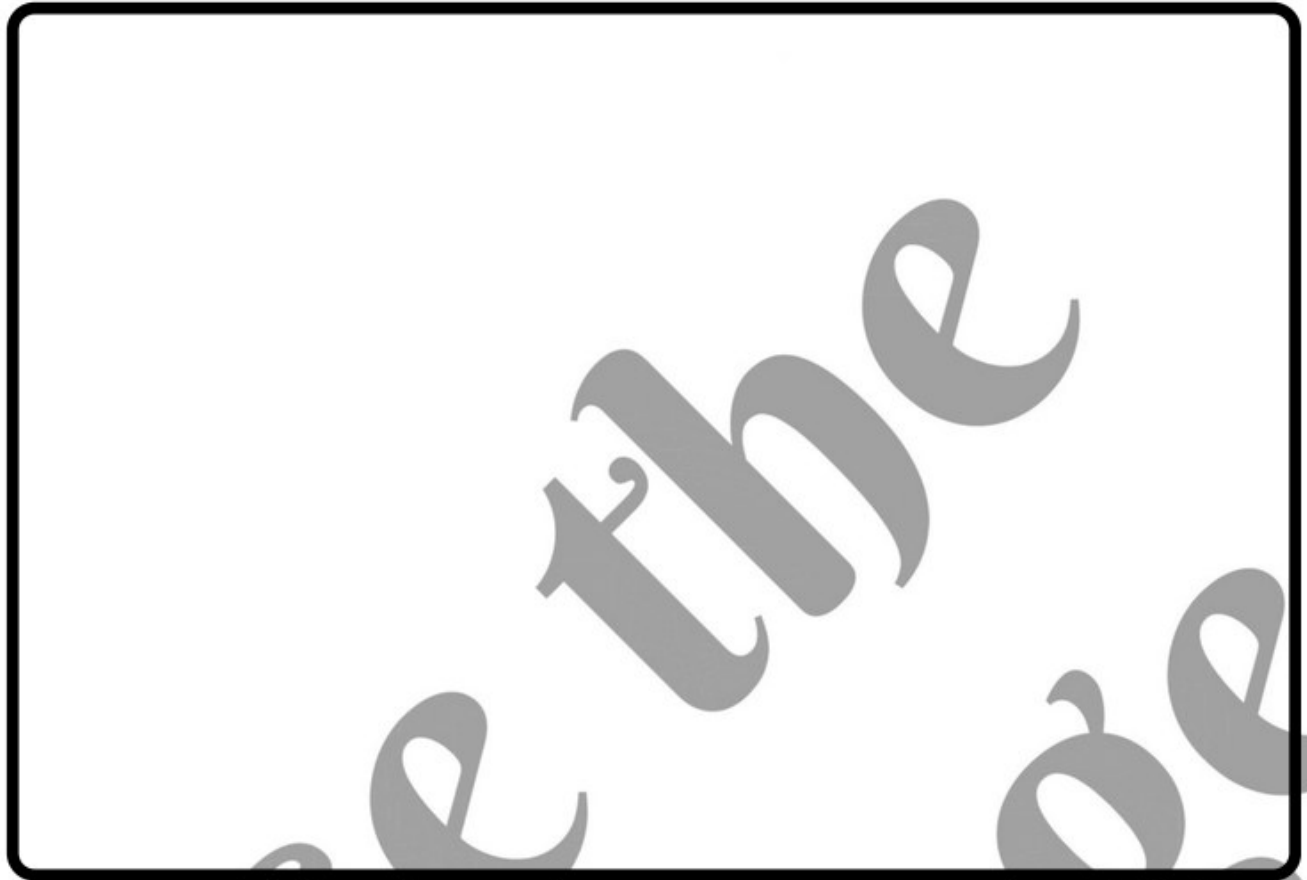

My Favorite Candidate

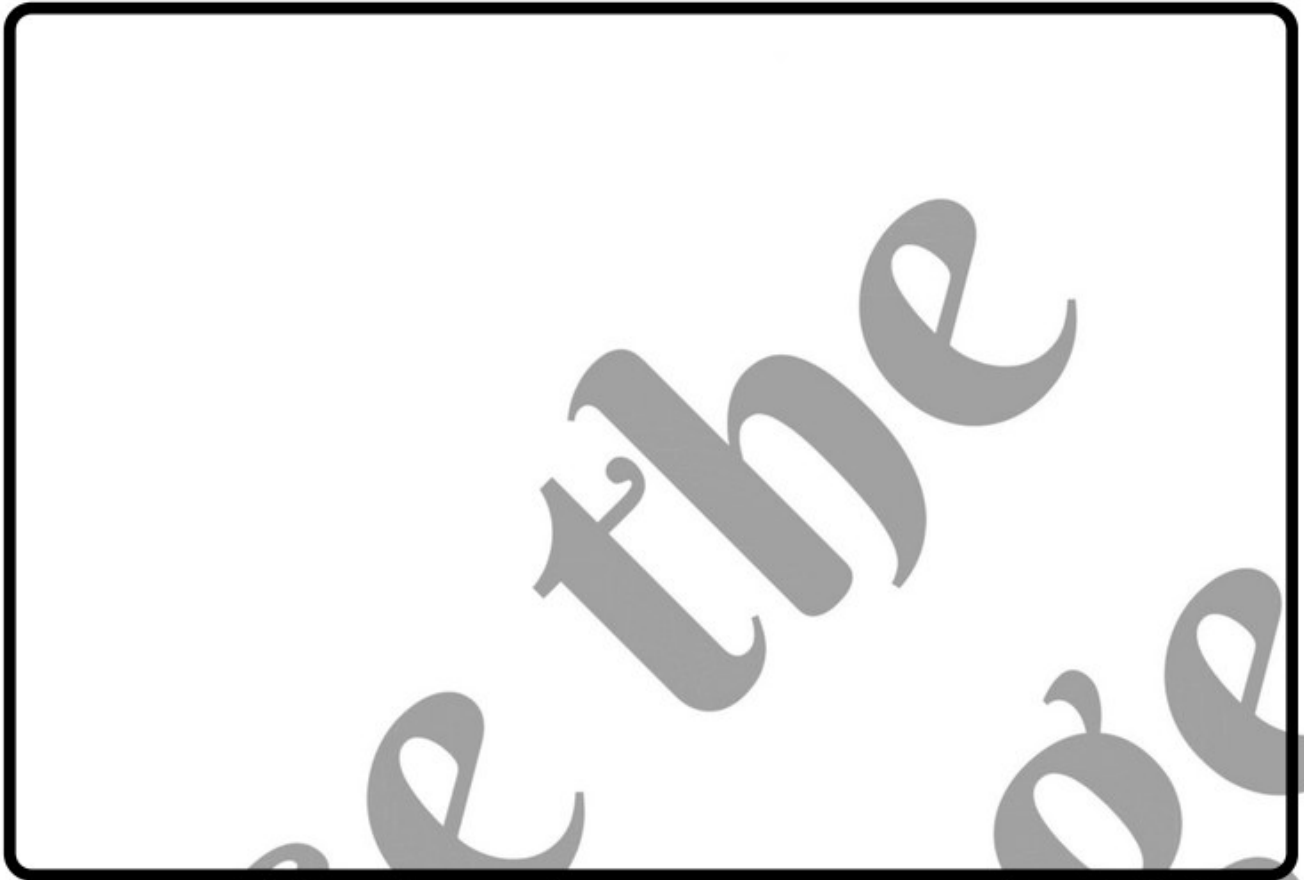

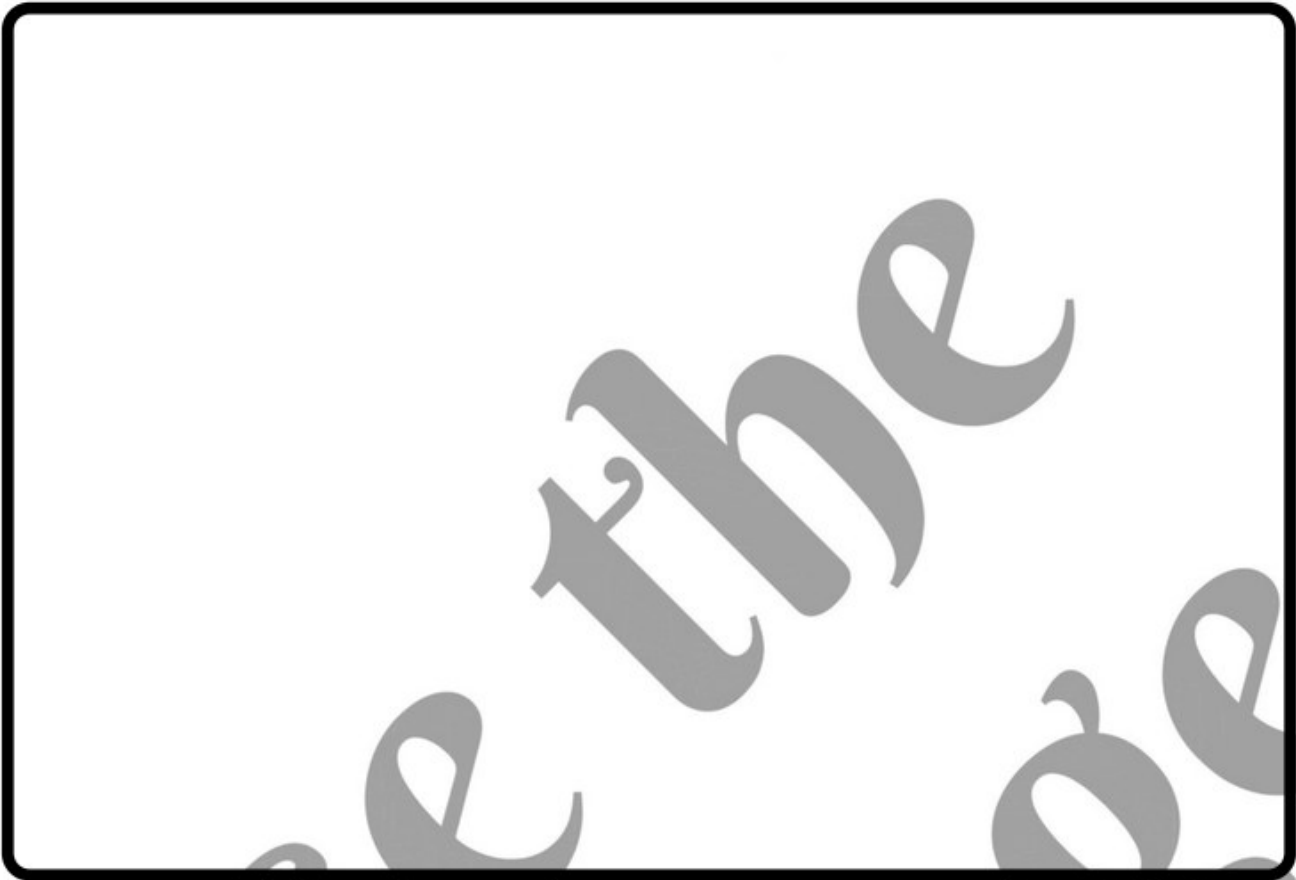

A president can help people by

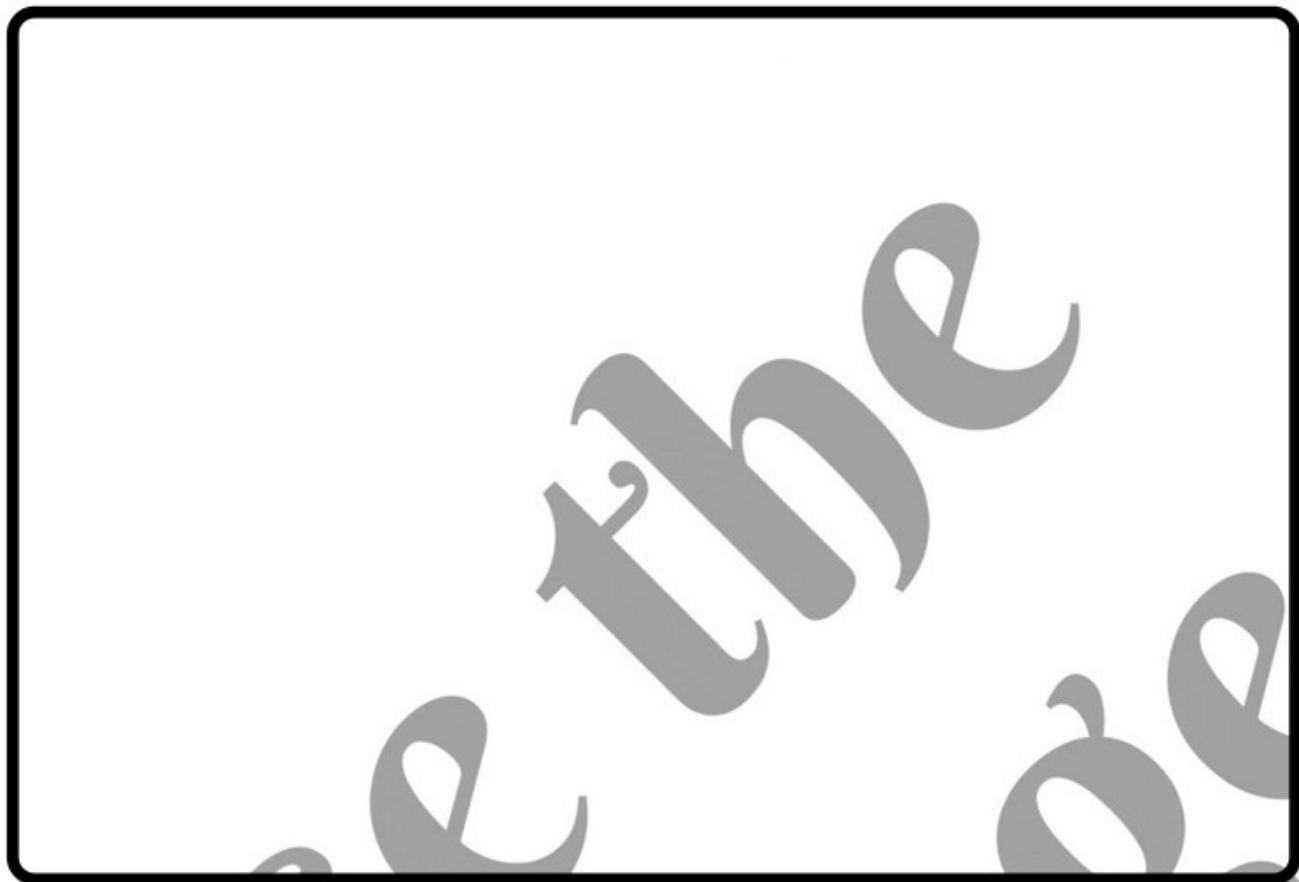

A president's most important job is

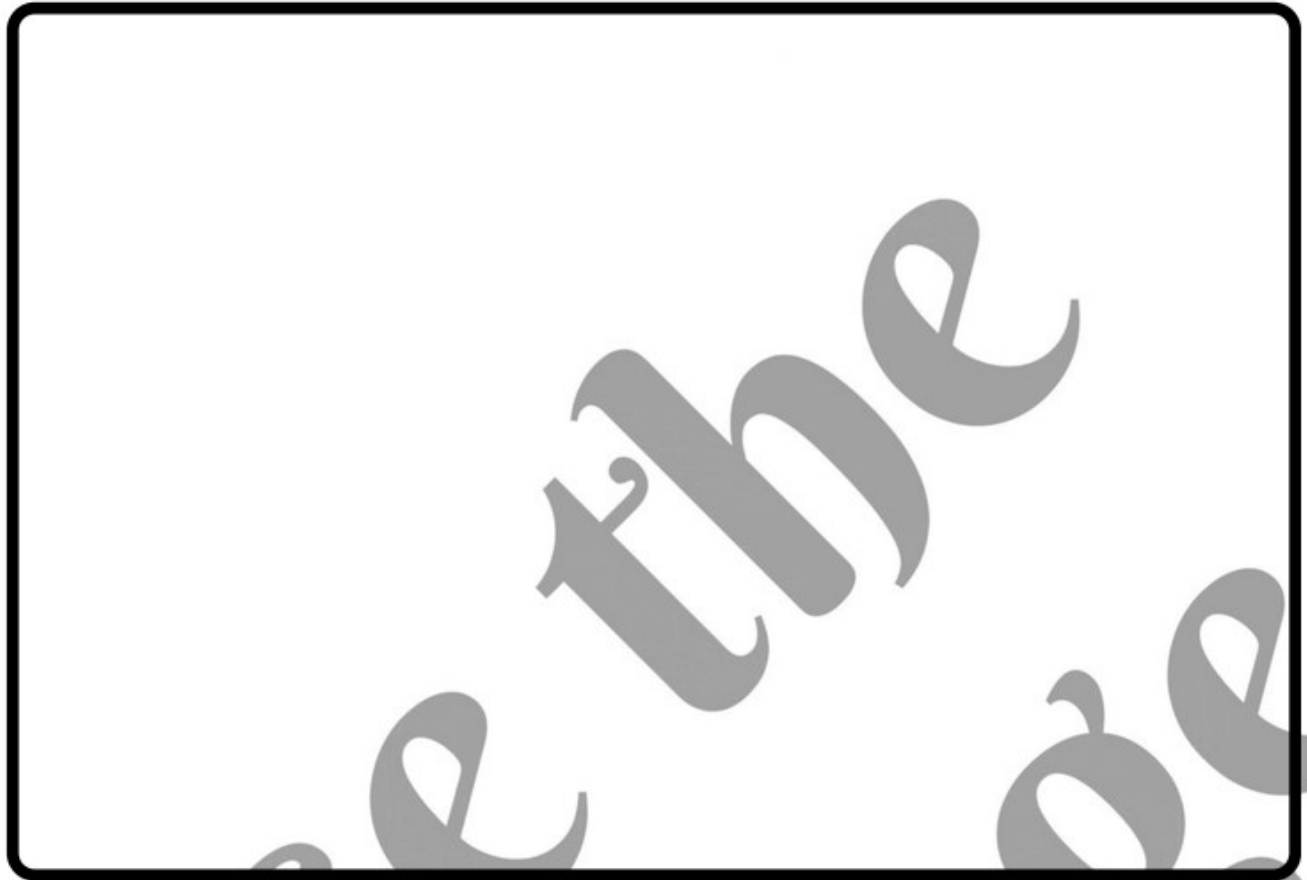

If I could make one rule it would be

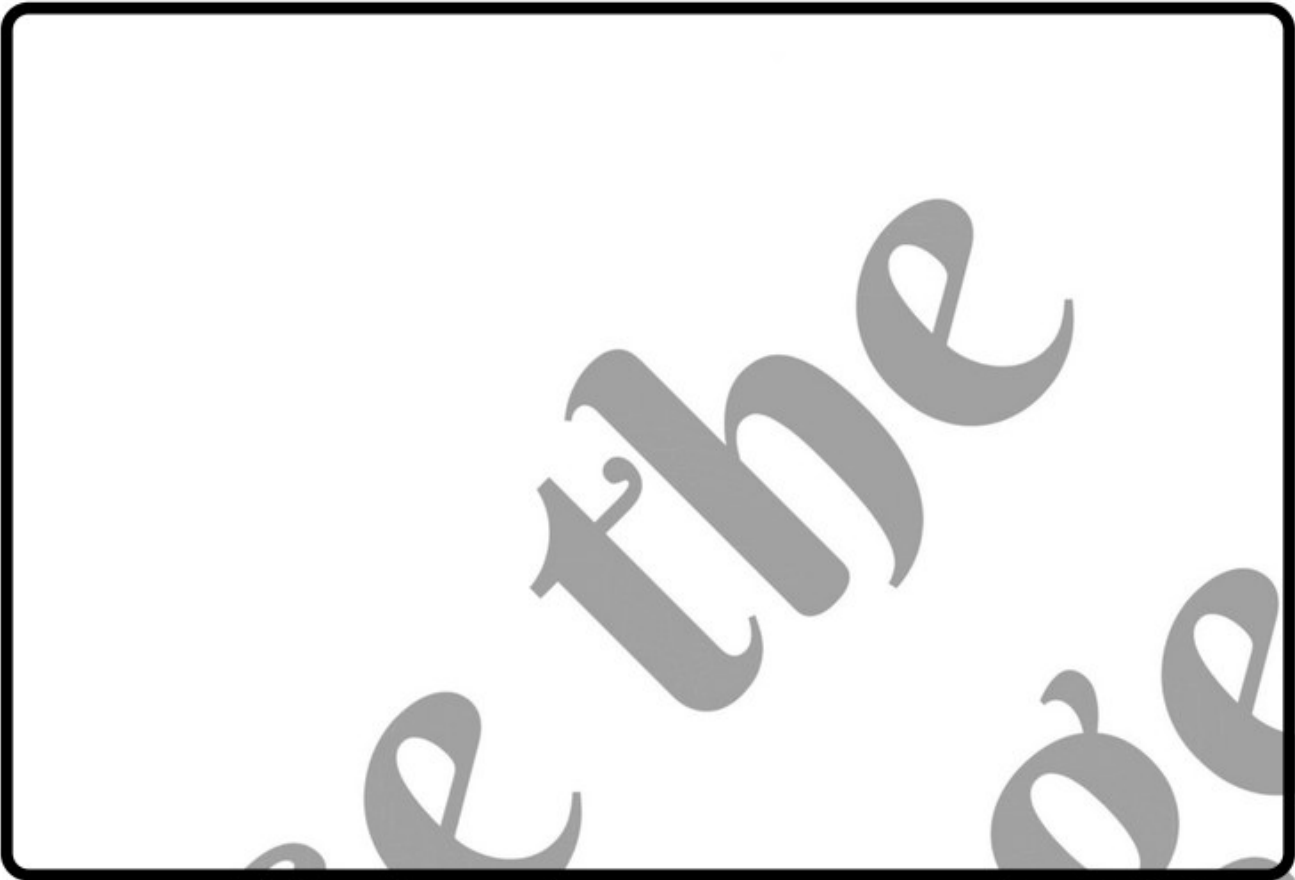

A good leader always

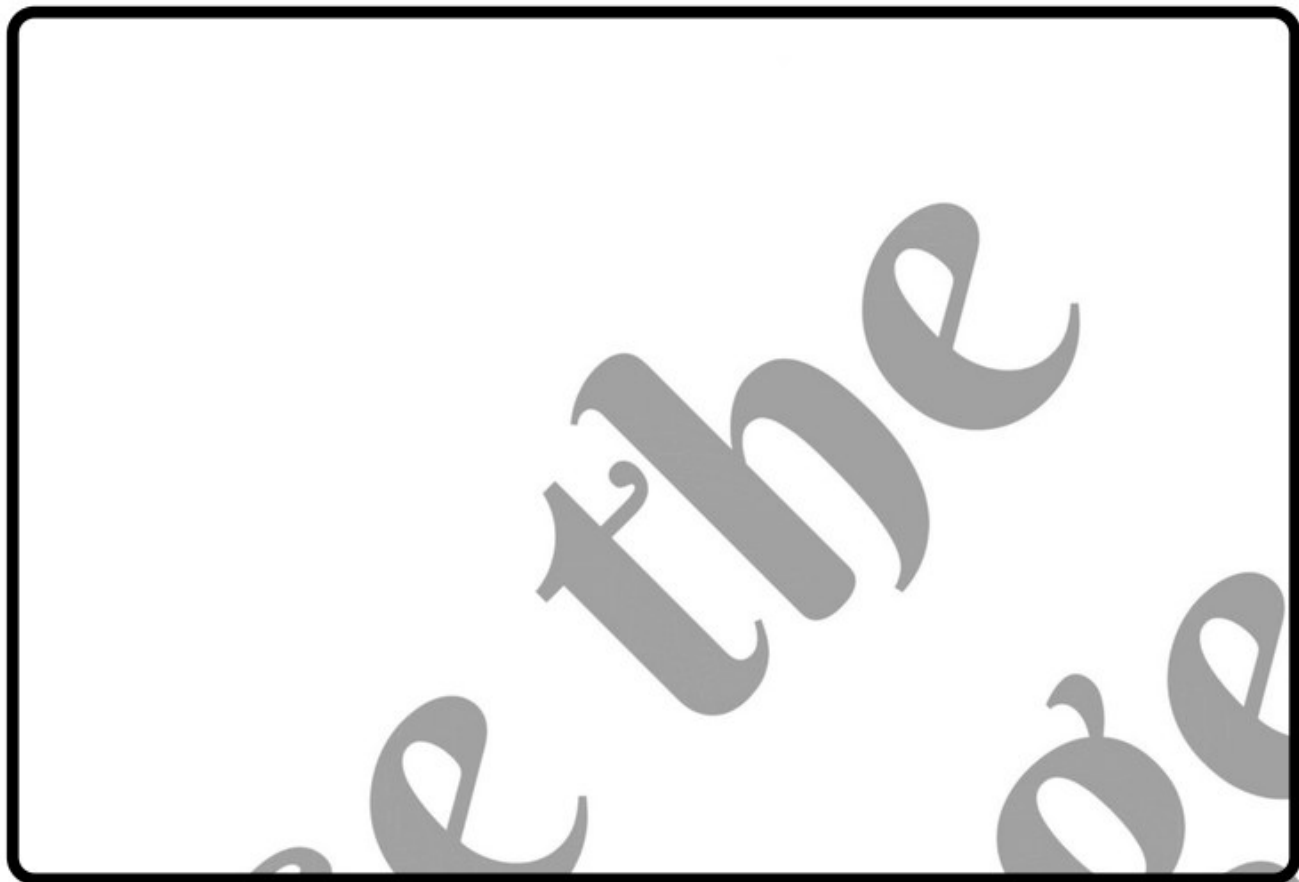

I think a good president should

If I were president, I would

A good vice president would

My favorite presidential candidate is

White House Fun Facts!

- The White House is the home and workplace of the president of the United States.
- George Washington chose the site for the White House in 1791, but he never lived there.
- An architect named James Hoban designed the White House.
- Construction began in 1792. Building a home this large took many years!
- John Adams became the first president to live there in 1800. The building was still unfinished.
- The stone walls were first whitewashed in 1798 to help protect the stone from freezing weather.
- British troops burned the building in 1814. James Hoban helped rebuild it.
- President Theodore Roosevelt made "White House" its official name in 1901.